

Directions: Complete the Venn diagram by citing text evidence (facts/information) to compare and contrast the technological advancements made during World War I and World War II. Remember, if you use information from a website, book, etc., you must list it as a source!

